

Our Father...

Benediction Hymn:

Let us pray:

Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your suffering and death. May our worship of this sacrament of your Body and Blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom, where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Benediction

The Divine Praises (Recite together)

Blessed be God

Blessed be his holy name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true man.

Blessed be the name of Jesus.

Blessed be his most Sacred Heart.

Blessed be his most precious blood.

Blessed be Jesus in the most holy sacrament of the altar.

Blessed by the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete.

Blessed be the great mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be her holy and Immaculate Conception.

Blessed be her glorious assumption.

Blessed be the name Mary, virgin and mother.

Blessed be Saint Joseph, her most chaste spouse.

Blessed be God in his angels and in his saints.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Opening Prayer

O Jesus, Good Shepherd, bless our parishes with numerous priests, deacons, men and women religious, consecrated laity and missionaries, according to the needs of the entire world which you love and wish to save. We especially entrust our community to you; grant us the spirit of the first Christians, so that we may be a cenacle of prayer, in loving acceptance of the Holy Spirit and his gifts. Assist our pastors and all who live in a consecrated life. Guide the steps of those who have responded generously to your call and are preparing to receive Holy Orders or to profess the evangelical counsels. Look with love on so many well-disposed young people and call them to follow you. Help them to understand that in you alone can they attain complete fulfillment. To this end we call on the powerful intercession of Mary, mother and model of all vocations. We beseech you to sustain our faith with the certainty that the Father will grant what you have commanded us to ask. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 15:5, 15-17.

“I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. This I command you, to love one another.”

Community Prayer

Guide: To listen to Jesus means to follow him and to follow him means putting our lives at the unselfish service of the gospel. Let us pray together and say: Lord, hear us.

Guide: For the Church, that she may live out her mission of service in the defense and support of the dignity and rights of every human being, we pray,

All: Lord, hear us.

Guide: For those who exercise a ministry in the Church, that they may be able to recognize the signs of our times and bring to others an authentic and effective salvation, we pray,

All: Lord, hear us.

Guide: For the youth pondering the possibility of consecrating their lives in the Church to the service of their brothers and sisters, that they may not fear oppositions and uncertainties but persevere in their commitment, we pray,

All: Lord, hear us.

Guide: For Christian families, that they may encourage their children to learn the value of service by practicing openness and self giving, we pray,

All: Lord, hear us.

Guide: For those who dedicate time and talents for our growth, that the Lord may grant them that profound peace which he reserves for his faithful friends, we pray,

All: Lord, hear us.

Guide: O Father, keep us youthful in the Spirit. May we know how to risk our lives in dedication to you and to our brothers and sisters.

All: Amen.
